CONVERSATIONS NORTHEAST

A conference about railroad photography and art in the northeastern United States jointly hosted by the Center for Railroad Photography & Art and the Archives & Special Collections of the University of Connecticut

About the conference

www.railphoto-art.org/conferences/northeast-2016

Presenters

Mark Aldrich, professor of economics at Smith College, on railroad political cartoons
Victor Hand, photographer
Matt Kierstead, on Stations by Michael Flanagan
Shaun O'Boyle, photographer
Howard Pincus, photographer
Jim Shaughnessy, photographer
Laura Smith, curator for railroad collections at the Archives & Special Collections of the University of Connecticut Libraries
Jack Swanberg, photographer

The day's full slate of activities will also include a continental breakfast, lunch, a reception with drinks and appetizers, and photography exhibitions by Jim Shaughnessy and from the Archives & Special Collections of the University of Connecticut.

Location

Thomas J. Dodd Research Center at the University of Connecticut, 405 Babbidge Road, Unit 1205, Storrs, Connecticut 06269-1205.

Hotels

The only hotel in Storrs itself is the Nathan Hale Inn, 860-427-7888, but several more hotels are available twenty miles to the west in Manchester. Since this is a one-day event, the Center is not reserving a block of rooms, so please book early if you wish to stay at the Nathan Hale Inn in Storrs.

About the Center

The Center is a nonprofit arts and educational organization that preserves and presents significant images of railroading. It has become the nation's foremost organization for exploring the intersection of America's history and culture with its railroad art and culture. Learn more at www.railphoto-art.org
