

SUPPORT OUR COMMUNITY

ABOUT THE CENTER

The Center for Railroad Photography & Art is the nation's foremost organization for exploring the many intersections of railroad art and culture with American history and life. Our mission is to preserve and present significant images of railroading. We maintain and make accessible a growing archive that is now approaching half-a-million images. Support from our community of members enables everything we do.

ONLINE PROGRAMMING

While the global health situation forced the cancellation of our annual Conversations conference in April, we recast the event online. We are planning more sessions throughout the summer and beyond. Visit our YouTube channel, www.youtube.com/railphotoart, to see all of the presentations from Virtual Conversations, and visit our website to learn about upcoming events: www.railphoto-art.org

LEGACY SOCIETY

You can help provide long-term sustainability and honor your love for railroading's visual culture by making a provision to include the Center for Railroad Photography & Art in your will or estate plans. Check the box at right to learn more.

PUBLICATIONS

The Railroad Photography of J. Parker Lamb is our newest publication. The 208-page, 10x11 inch, hardcover book features more than 160 of Lamb's stunning photographs in duotone printing. Order your copy now.

Beebe & Clegg: Their Enduring Photographic Legacy, published by the Center in 2018, offers an in-depth look at the lives and photography of Lucius Beebe and Charles Clegg, two luminaries in the field of railroad book publishing.

The Railroad and The Art of Place is a 152-page, 11x11-inch, hardcover book published by the Center in 2017. It features 108 photographs by David Kahler that examine the landscape and communities along Norfolk Southern's main line in eastern Kentucky and southern West Virginia.
