ABOUT THE CENTER

The Center for Railroad Photography & Art is the nation's foremost organization for exploring the many intersections of railroad art and culture with social history and life in the United States and beyond. Our mission is to preserve and present significant images of railroading. We maintain and make accessible an archive that exceeds half-a-million images. Support from our member community enables everything we do.

LEGACY SOCIETY

You can provide long-term sustainability and honor your love for railroading's visual culture by making a provision to include the Center for Railroad Photography & Art Endowment in your will or estate plans. Check the box at right to learn more.

NEW BOOK

Rio Grande Steam Finale: Narrow Gauge Railroad Photography in Colorado and New Mexico presents stunning photographs from our collections of the final decades of the Denver & Rio Grande Western's three-foot-gauge lines. Our Railroad Heritage Visual Archive contains more than 5,000 images of the narrow gauge from such renowned photo-graphers as Tom Gildersleeve, John Gruber, Victor Hand, Don Hofsommer, Jim Shaughnessy, Fred Springer, Richard Steinheimer, and Karl Zimmermann. This 228-page, 10x10, hardcover book presents nearly 200 of their best images along with essays, a map, and a gallery of recent photographs of the preserved routes. Order it and our other books with this form (lower right) or at: www.railphoto-art.org/books
